

WESTLAKE CHEMICAL PARTNERS LP

Code of Ethics for Principal Executive Officer, Principal Financial Officer and Principal Accounting Officer

Effective as of July 15, 2014

The Board of Directors (the “Board”) of Westlake Chemical Partners GP LLC (the “Company”), acting in its capacity as the general partner of Westlake Chemical Partners LP (the “Partnership” and, together with its subsidiaries and the Company, the “Partnership Group”) has adopted this code of ethics (the “Code of Ethics”), which applies to the Company’s Principal Executive Officer, Principal Financial Officer, and Principal Accounting Officer (the “Covered Employees. The Company expects all its employees to act in accordance with the highest standards of personal and professional integrity, to comply with all applicable laws, rules and regulations, to deter wrongdoing, and to abide by the Company’s Code of Conduct and other policies and procedures adopted by the Company that govern the conduct of its employees.

Honest and ethical conduct; conflicts of interest. In carrying out their duties and responsibilities for the Partnership Group, Covered Employees should engage in and promote honest and ethical conduct, including the ethical handling of actual or apparent conflicts of interest between personal and professional relationships. Covered Employees should strive to identify and raise potential issues before they lead to problems.

A conflict of interest occurs when an individual’s personal interest is adverse to or otherwise in conflict with the interests of the Partnership Group. Covered Employees should avoid taking actions that would create actual or apparent conflicts of interest. In those rare occasions in which an unanticipated conflict of interest may arise, the affected Covered Employee should promptly bring the situation to the attention of higher levels of management, the Company’s Legal Department, or the Audit Committee of the Board (the “Audit Committee”) so that appropriate steps may be taken to eliminate the conflict or take other appropriate action to mitigate the effect of the conflict. Conflicts of interest may involve not only situations in which the Covered Employee has a direct personal interest, but also those in which a family member has an interest or those in which the interest is indirect through a corporation, partnership or other entity.

Full and fair disclosure. It is the Company’s policy that the information in its public communications, including filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”), be timely and understandable and fair, complete, and accurate in all material respects. Covered Employees should exercise diligence and care to do their part in acting in furtherance of this policy. Covered Employees are prohibited from knowingly misrepresenting, omitting, or causing others to misrepresent or omit, material facts about the Partnership to anyone having a role in the Partnership's financial reporting and disclosure processes. Covered Employees must not directly or indirectly take any action to coerce, manipulate, mislead, or fraudulently influence the Company's or its subsidiaries' independent auditors or any internal accounting or auditing personnel for the purpose or with the effect of rendering the Partnership's financial statements misleading, or direct anyone else to do so.

It is the responsibility of each Covered Employee promptly to bring to the attention of the Board any material information of which the executive may become aware that affects the disclosures made by the Partnership in its public filings or otherwise, and otherwise to assist the Board in fulfilling its responsibilities. In addition, each Covered Employee shall promptly bring to the attention of the Board any information the employee may have concerning (a) significant deficiencies or material weaknesses in the design or operation of internal controls which could adversely affect the Partnership's ability to record, process, summarize and report financial information or (b) any fraud, whether or not material, that involves management or other employees who have a significant role in the Company's financial reporting, disclosures or internal controls.

Compliance with laws and regulations. Covered Employees should comply with applicable governmental laws, rules and regulations. Although no single individual is expected to know the details of all laws, rules, and regulations, it is important to know enough to determine when to seek advice or guidance. Each Covered Employee should promptly bring to the attention of appropriate senior management, the Company's Legal Department or the Audit Committee evidence of any material violations of laws, rules, or regulations applicable to the Partnership Group, by the Company or anyone acting on its behalf.

Reporting of violations of this code. Each Covered Employee is responsible for reporting any violation of this Code of Ethics, or circumstances which the Covered Employee considers to involve a probable violation, to the Compliance Officer identified below. Employees may choose to remain anonymous in reporting violations or circumstances that may involve a violation.

Accountability. Each Covered Employee will be held accountable for his or her adherence to this Code of Ethics. The failure to observe the terms of this Code of Ethics may result in disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment. Violations of this Code of Ethics may also constitute violations of law that may result in civil and criminal penalties.

Waivers. Consents obtained pursuant to this Code of Ethics, or waivers of any provision of this Code of Ethics, may be made only by the Board or a committee thereof. Persons seeking a waiver should be prepared to disclose all pertinent facts and circumstances, respond to inquiries for additional information, explain why the waiver is necessary, appropriate, or in the best interest of the Partnership Group, and be willing to comply with any procedures that may be required to protect the Partnership Group in connection with a waiver. If a waiver of this Code of Ethics is granted for any Covered Employee, appropriate disclosure will be made promptly in accordance with the rules and regulations of the SEC and the listing requirements of the New York Stock Exchange.

Amendment. Any amendment to this Code of Ethics may be made only by the Board or a committee thereof. If an amendment to this Code of Ethics is made, appropriate disclosure will be made promptly in accordance with the rules and regulations of the SEC and the listing requirements of the New York Stock Exchange.

Posting Requirement. The Partnership shall make this Code of Ethics available on or through its website as required by applicable rules and regulations. In addition, the Partnership will disclose in its Annual Report on Form 10-K that a copy of this Code of Ethics is available on the Partnership's website and in print to any unitholder who requests a copy.

Compliance Officer. The Compliance Officer for purposes of this Code of Ethics is L. Benjamin Ederington.

Acknowledgment Statement. Each Covered Person must sign and return to the Compliance Officer the attached Acknowledgment Statement. This must be done promptly upon adoption of this Code of Ethics by the Company and each year thereafter in connection with the preparation and filing of the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K.
